Mr. Wardlow thanked the Board for providing the opportunities to present the awards and recognize the following individuals for outstanding contributions to promoting mental health, strengthening resilience, and providing the knowledge, skills, and support needed for young people to say “No” to alcohol, tobacco, and other drug abuse substances. The following were recognized (rounds of applause were given each):

Trevor Frank was nominated by the City of Kaukauna’s Alcohol, Tobacco, and Other Drug Abuse (AODA) Prevention Board. She helped write and teach the first Underage Diversion Program in Appleton and provided education at the Dept. of Probation and Parole.
