Executive Nelson reported the following:

- Highway - Paving of CTH HH between CTH CE & CTH Z is starting the week of Oct. 17. Shouldering, striping, and signing should be completed by the end of the month.
- Brewster Village - The facility will be celebrating its 15th Anniversary with an open house Oct. 17 from 4 to 7 p.m. Everyone was welcomed.
- Clerk of Courts - All reports indicate that the recent front counter remodel went well. Organizational tasks remain, but staff is pleased with the work.
- Recycling & Solid Waste - The rooting-zone layer placement of the east landfill cap is nearly 80% complete. Seeding is scheduled to begin next week. Recycling cart roll-out continues in November for nine of 13 communities participating in the grant program to purchase carts for their residents. The remaining four municipalities will roll out carts in April. A roll-out event, to include Recycling Partnership staff and funding partners, is planned for Nov. 10.
- Airport - Interior work on the rental car center continues. Windows, doors and signs are being installed. Concrete curb and gutter are in place, and final grade work is complete for asphalt pavement around the building. Paving begins this week, weather permitting. The airport is hosting a visit from the National Weather Service on Oct. 19 to discuss the upcoming winter weather outlook with airport snow removal crews. Planning for the terminal roof replacement is underway, with a goal of replacing the center third in early 2017, weather permitting. The airport recently hosted a successful TSA pre-check. Nearly 700 people participated in the event. Old Glory Honor Flight Mission 38 is scheduled for Oct. Everyone was welcomed to attend.

• Planning - Implementation of the Enterprise Permitting System is moving forward. Contract negotiations with the vendor Cityview and the mapping of permit and approval processes is underway. Staff is working with the Treasurer to transition the Property Listing Division into the Planning Dept. Proposals for the Sheriff’s Law Enforcement Facility Architecture and Engineering project are due Monday. They will be reviewed later this month. Initial design meetings with all downtown divisions slated for new or remodeled spaces were completed last Friday. Furniture for affected departments has been inventoried and assessed for future usability.

• Human Resources - Work continues on the review and consolidation of the Personnel and Interim Personnel Manuals. Set-up and testing of the new HR/Payroll system is ongoing. Preparation is underway for the Annual Benefits Enrollment period. Mailings will go out this week to employees with details regarding 2017 benefits.

• Maintenance - Infrared scanning, testing, and maintenance on electrical power distribution systems throughout the downtown complex has been completed. No major issues were detected. Implementation of a computerized maintenance management system will soon be underway.

• Budget Message - The Proposed 2017 Executive Budget document was delivered in supervisor mailboxes. Assembling the annual budget takes considerable teamwork. Executive Nelson thanked department heads, constitutional officers, and county staff for their assistance in crafting the proposed 2017 budget. He also thanked Board Chair Nooyen, Vice Chair Hagen, Finance Chair Sturm, and other board leaders who participated in the executive budget meetings. The inclusion of board leadership in budget discussions assists in the budget process. The proposed 2017 budget accomplishes challenging goals. It maintains all county services at current levels while lowering the tax rate by three cents. It limits the impact to the average property owner to well below inflation, maintains a healthy fund balance, and makes a significant cash down payment on impending facilities projects, thereby reducing bonding. Combined, these efforts demonstrate the kind of fiscal prudence that safeguards Outagamie’s Aaa bond rating and distinguishes Outagamie County as one of only five Wisconsin counties to have earned that status. A key structural change contained in the budget is related to the county’s Smart-on-Crime initiative, which the Board heard about from Judge John DesJardins and CJTS Director Bernie Vetrone in their previous meeting. This budget eliminates the contract with Family Services for the Day Report Center, allowing CJTS to utilize that funding to add staff to bring this service in-house, while it also helps build a robust pre-trial diversion program. This approach will deliver significantly more services for the funding. Thanks were extended for their excellent work to Judge DesJardins, Director Vetrone and the entire Evidence-Based Decision Making policy team. Outagamie is one of just a handful of counties in the nation to reform our criminal justice system through the application of scientific principles. Finance Committee and Jurisdictional Committee budget reviews are underway. Executive Nelson welcomed the Board’s diligence in reviewing and adopting a fiscally responsible 2017 budget, one that all can be proud to support.
